month. The fact that he now admits WHEN THE German vote, in the his anxiety and fears that all the foreigners in P-kin have been killed, North, was cast for the republican ticket, as most of it was four years ago, prepares the officials for his next disthe republicans and their allies, the sopatch which is expected to sconfirm called gold democrats, so far from objecting to the foreign vote, commended it, as more intelligent and conservative it, as more intelligent and conservative Hay when the dispatch from Consulthan that of the "illiterate" whites of Goodnow was received. M. de Wollant had come to the department lookthe South: but now, when that vote, which came here to avoid the tyranny of European imperialism, is going to be no basis upon which to hang more hopes. The dispatch from U. S. Concast against American imperialism, the opponents of democracy say the consul McWede at Cauton saying that Viceroy Li Hung Chang has engaged quarters upon the Chinese steamer centration of the foreign vote in this country is all wrong, and evinces what parture for the north is as yet undecided was received with dislittle gratitude those who cast it have for the favors they have received here.

NOTWITHSTANDING all the glory, Over a month ago Li Hung Chang requested that no foreign troops should honor and emoluments General Shafter and General Otis and Colonel Rooseyelt have had showered upon them by the administration, an experienced have started and even to have reached Pekin several times. The definite inofficer of the U.S army now in China, says: "It is impossible to realize at home that there has been more real war here than in Cuba or the Philip"The powers have aroused a sleeping giant," said Secretary Rooker, of the pines." There have been various sorts of ages, but this is especially and peculiarly the humbug age, and it indeed seems true that people love to be humbugged-certainly the American prople do.

MR. McKinley says his party "broke the shackles of five million slaves in this country, and has liberated ten million of the human family from the yoke of imperialism," But Mr. Lincoln said the South could retain her slaves if she would only come back into the Union, and the people of Hawaii, Cubs, 000 in the field and if they have not the Porto Rico and the Philippine Islands arms or the leaders that the powers say the old imperialism of their legitimate rulers was infinitely more endurable than that of their avaricious American conquerors.

MR. BECK, the U. S. district attorney for Philadelphia, deserted the Dominican brothers, who are most nudemocratic party in 1896, and for doing so was kept in office by Mr. McKinley. Day before yesterday he came out is a matter of history, these orders findopenly in the newspapers as having ing many evidences in confirmation, permanently abandoned the democratic that St. Thomas, the apostle, preached party and repudiated its policy, and the day after, Mr. McKinley appointed him assistant U. S. attorney general. The passing through here daily now. With President does not allow democratic deserters to wait a long time for their worth a great deal less, have been, and are being, raised with no trouble and comparatively little expense. But Mr. McKinley positively refuses to allow the Maine to be raised, lest the whole world see that she was blown up from the inside, and not the outside; but that wouldn't be conducive to his reelection.

IT IS DOUBTFUL if the republicans in the State really contemplate making actual contests for more than two Congressional districts, the 2nd and the 9:h, and now that the national republican committee has determined to appropriate no money even to them, it is hardly probable that the republican aspirants for Congress in either, will deem the game worth the candle.

IT APPEARS that the war in South Africa is "over," just as that in the Philippine Islands is, as the Boers attack and capture fortified positions and whole battalions and regiments of British soldiers within a few miles of Pretoria. as the Filipinos do near Manila, so that General Roberts can as ill afford to spare any of his troops, as General MacArthur can, for service in Chins.

ONE OF the Northern republican newspapers says most of Mr. Bryan's electoral votes will come from the "old Confederate South." In their attempt to retain possession of the government and money of this country, the republicans again attempt to revive sectionism and to incite the people of the North to revived hate for those who live

THE most reliable news that comes from China is to the effect that the aliled foreign forces who have invaded that country are on any thing else than amicable relations with each other and are not acting in accord. That is usually the case with marauders and looters; they are envious of each other's

The McKinley Home.

Cantes, O., July 13.—After the excitement of Thursday, things have settled down and there is perfect quiet at the McKisley home. Everybody is taking a good rest. All the household went for a long drive this morning. What political politicians did not leave Thursday night, got away this morning. The yard at the McKinley home is being cleaned and the porter is industriously sprinkling, trying to coax back to life the few sprays of grass on the lawn that were not trampled entirely to death yesterday. These legations, it is said, held out longer than the others. They were atacked in force on the evening of July 6 by troops commanded by Prince Tuan. The fight continued all night At 7 o'clock in the morning the lega ions were in ruins and all the foreigners except two were dead. Prince Ching and General-Wen Shao went to the relief of the Europeans, but were repulsed. Two foreigners are said to have escaped through the gates.

Washington authorities, it is said, have decided to insist that Minister Wu furnish definite information as to the fate of Minister Conger and other Americans in Pekin. If the Chines covernment was able to forward a deeree from China, it is argued, it is also able to send a communication from the foreign ministers in Pekin. The auhenticity of the decree made public Wednesday is now doubted in Washington. At least, it is not taken as a proof that the Pekin legations are safe. The same view is taken in London,

Berlin and other capitals. Dispatches from Tientsin, under date of July 6, say that that the Russians began an attack on the Chinese forces on the Lutal canal, east of the walled city, July 5. From China London, July 13. - It is asserted that an official message was received in London today announcing that all the foreigners in Pekin were murdered on July 6. The foreign office, however, explicitly denies that any message has been received there announcing the destruction of the Pekin legations. London, July 13 .- The date given for the murder of the foreigners in Pekin, in the latest dispatches, is July 6th. This date does not conflict with any of the reports of the foreigners' safety, July being the latest date on which the British legation and one other were reported standing. One Shanghai dis pitch describes the destruction of the legations and the massacre of the foreigners with some circumstantiality which increases the feeling of conviction that all is over in Pekin. The massacre may have taken place June 30, as originally reported, or even earlier. The only gleam of hope is that since the reassuring reports are believed to have been false—it is possible that today's dark suggestions are unfounded too. It is doubtful if the world, since the telegraph was invented, has ever been subjected to such a series of contradictory statements as the Chinese crisis has furnished. London, July 13.-The Japanese embassy here learns positively that Prince Ching, instead of protecting the foreign ers in Pekin, is merely the tool of Prince Tuan. An official of the embassy said that Japan had informed the powers would be the confirmation of her 'sphere of influence" opposite Formosa and the "open door" for all nations There would also be expected a money indemnity from Chins. The United States, said the Japanese official, is the most disinterested power in China and, as such, she will be chosen as umpire it an arbitration of claims against China is required.

In the House of Commons today, Mr.

Broderick, the under foreign secretary, said it was imperatively necessary that the allied admirals capture the Taku forts before proceeding to the relief of Tientsin. The Taku forts were cap-tured on June 18. It has been said that the attack on them was not justified and that the action on the part of the foreign admirals only incited the Chinese to further outrages. On this account, Admiral Kempff has been commended for taking no part in the combardment of the forts.

London, July 13.—A Brussels dis-patch says the Belgian government has received a Shanghai dispatch which is confirmatory of the Shangbai press dis patches received here last night to the effect that General Nieh had defeated the Chinese rebels near Pekin and relieved Prince Ching, who was defending he Europeans. The report is based on Chinese authority.

Simla, July 13 - The first battalion of the "Black Watch" (Highlanders). the first Shropshires, the Second Innis killings and the first Camerons have been ordered to hold themselves in readiness to proceed to China.

Shanghai, July 13—A steamer arrived here today filled with American, English, and other refugees from Tienein. The Chinese were driving in the allied forces and were mounting twelve more guns besides sweeping the streets with rifle fire. The temperance hall which serves as army headquarters, was struck by 15 shells on Saturday last and one soldier was killed and several were wounded. Neither the Weish Fulsiliers nor the 1200 Americans who arrived on July 5, have a single effective gun or transport commissariat.

Fifteen hundred Russians for unately the situation.

The whole number of Japanese in Tientsin on July 7th was 2,500, with two batteries which are inferior to the Chinese artillery. The tug boat bringing the refugees away from Tientsin was constantly struck while running the gauntlet of he Chinese artillery fire along the Pei Ho banks. The wounded soldiers are being treated aboard the ships of the fleet because of the lack of proper hospital facilities. When the refugees left Tientein the allies were arranging for a night attack on the Chinese July 9 an 10 if conditions should be favorable. Washington July 13 .- The Department of State has received a dispatch from Consul General Goodnow, at Shanghai, saying that the Governor of Shantung wires that the boxers and oldiers were bombarding the legations for a final attack upon the 7th of July He is extremely anxious for the safety of the ministers and our Chinese friends n Pekin. The Consuladds that fears of the worst are generally entertained.

A dispatch from Consul McWade, at Canton, says that the date for the de-parture of Li Hung Chang for the North is as yet undecided.

There are supposed to have been about 700 foreigners in Pekin. Nearly all of these were either connected with the legations or missionaries who had taken refuge in the capital when the boxers' disturbances first broke out.

ing bear with a streak of bad in his composition yesterday gave the towsfolk of Listie, Somerset county, Pa . an exhibition of cussedness not exactly on the cards. Bruin and his master had far len asleep in the shade of a sugar maple when two boys started the trouble by prodding the bear with a stick as he slept. With a snarl of rage the animal broke away from his master and chased the boys down the main street of the own. Jacob Dietz, the town constable, attempted to arrest the animal, but Bruin gave him a Jeffries slap on the aw and put him out in the first round. To emphasize his victory the bear chewed the constable's right arm and left him lying half unconscious in the For four hours the bear held undisputed possession of the town. The ter-rorized residents remained closely bebind barred doors, while the animal amused himself chasing chauce passers by. Barber John Schrock was besieged in his shop by the bear, which tore a screen door to shreds in efforts to reach bim. The postmaster finally telephoned the sheriff for help, but the latter thought it was a joke. The gravity of the situation was finally impressed upon him.

With two deputies he drove to the town and found the hear had things all his own way. Bruin was lasseed after a bard fight and landed in a railroad tool house to sober up. The bear trainer appeared on the scene about this time, and the beast was turned over to
